

The Southern Ohio Indoor Music Festival was established in 2003 and is presented twice each year – in March and November- at the Roberts Convention Centre in Wilmington, Ohio.

The Southern Ohio Indoor Music Festival features nationally known acoustic music groups including pioneers of Bluegrass music as well as a sampling of the up and coming bluegrass bands. Our goal annually is to always feature Bluegrass, Old-time and Gospel music, combined with family fun and educational opportunities in an entertaining, smoke and alcohol free environment.

The Southern Ohio Indoor Music Festival is sponsored by WBZI, WEDI and WKFI Radio stations and hosted at the Roberts Convention Centre located at the intersection of US 68 and I-71 at exit 50 which is less than an hour drive from Dayton, Cincinnati and Columbus. More than a convention center, the Roberts Centre includes a Holiday Inn Hotel, Max and Erma's Restaurant, RV parking as well as state of the art facilities for hosting our annual INDOOR music event.
